Nov 26, 2020

A Case of Congenital Hereditary Metabolic Disease-urea Cycle Metabolic Disorder

181830691 [1], sdadf[2]

[1]sd; [2]sdd

1 Works for me This protocol is published without a DOI.

181830691

ABSTRACT

Congenital metabolic diseases are caused by the lack or abnormality of a certain enzyme or its cofactors, which can cause accumulation or lack of specific metabolites. The best outcome for children with inborn errors of metabolism (IEM) depends on recognizing the symptoms and signs of metabolic diseases, promptly assessing them, and transferring them to a medical center familiar with the evaluation and treatment of related diseases. Delayed diagnosis may lead to Acute metabolic decompensation, progressive nerve damage, or death.

EXTERNAL LINK

https://www.creative-proteomics.com/services/urea-cycle-metabolism-analysis-service.htm

ATTACHMENTS

A Case of Congenital Hereditary Metabolic Disease-urea Cycle Metabolic Disorder.docx

EXTERNAL LINK

https://www.creative-proteomics.com/services/urea-cycle-metabolism-analysis-service.htm

PROTOCOL CITATION

181830691 , sdadf 2020. A Case of Congenital Hereditary Metabolic Disease-urea Cycle Metabolic Disorder. protocols.io https://protocols.io/view/a-case-of-congenital-hereditary-metabolic-disease-bp4ymqxw

EXTERNAL LINK

https://www.creative-proteomics.com/services/urea-cycle-metabolism-analysis-service.htm

CREATED

Nov 26, 2020

LAST MODIFIED

Nov 26, 2020

PROTOCOL INTEGER ID

44920

ATTACHMENTS

A Case of Congenital Hereditary Metabolic Disease-urea Cycle Metabolic Disorder.docx