

Apr 03, 2020

Project YES! Youth Engaging for Success: Arthur Davison Children's Hospital Pathology Laboratory's Standard Operating Procedures for HIV viral load and resistance testing ↗

PLOS One

Julie Denison¹, Jonathan Mwansa², Sam Miti²¹Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, ²Arthur Davison Children's Hospital1 Works for me dx.doi.org/10.17504/protocols.io.bcc7iszn

Julie Denison

ABSTRACT

Arthur Davison Children's Hospital Pathology Laboratory's Standard Operating Procedures used to test Project YES! (Youth Engaging for Success) HIV viral load and resistance testing.

EXTERNAL LINK

<https://doi.org/10.1371/journal.pone.0230703>

THIS PROTOCOL ACCOMPANIES THE FOLLOWING PUBLICATION

Arthur Davison Children's Hospital Pathology Laboratory's Standard Operating Procedures:
EXTRACTION FOR DRUG RESISTANCE TESTING (GENOTYPING)
PCR LABORATORY PERFORMING HIV-1 RNA QUANTITATIVE TEST USING CAP/CTM 96

HIV-1 RNA
HIV-1 Genotyping Procedure

ATTACHMENTS

PCRL-TECH-005 Performing HIV-1 RNA Quantitative Using CAPCTM96.pdfADCH_TP_PCR_005_HIV-1 Genotyping Procedure.pdfADCH_TP_PCR_004_RNA Extraction Procedure.pdf

This is an open access protocol distributed under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution License, which permits unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original author and source are credited